

The first Scoring Course run in Portugal, was held on the 7th November under the able guidance of Graham Cooper.

It was attended by representatives from three cricket clubs, some travelling from as far afield as Porto and Castelo Branco. As usual it was a learning experience, especially understanding the finer points of scoring.